AT SERRA SCHOOL

Junipero Serra High School, 14830 South Van Ness, Gardena, will hold its annual barbecue dinner and fiesta on the school grounds Saturday and Sunday, April 21-22. Dinner will be served on Sunday from 12:30 to 6:30 p.m.

There will be food booths, game booths, entertainment for all ages, and rides for the children.

A staff of "baby sitters" will take care of smaller children without charge so that mothers and dads will be free to join in the fun.

TORRANCE GAA ATTEND MEET

Representing Torrance High School at the GAA Convention held in Filmore, were Nancy Humphreys, president, Tor. Hi GAA, Beverly Sowle, Irene Maki, Betty Yoshioka, Ruth McClintock, and Rachael Hogan.

Accompanying the girls were Miss Doris Avis and Miss Joan Wootton.

Torrance GAA won the vice presidency of the GAF with Beverly Hills High taking the top position of president.

F & F CLUB MEET

The Fun and Fund Club of Torrance Rebekah Lodge No. 247, met at the home of Retta Nelson, Monday evening.

After the business meeting, a surprise handkerchief show was given for Bertha Landers who will return to her home in New York.

The evening was spent playing cards and games. Next meeting will be held at the home of Olive Veseth, 2246 W. 25th St., Lomita. This meeting will begin with a pot luck luncheon.

Breakfast To Note CDA Anniversary

Plans for the annual communion breakfast were made when Court St. Catherine, Catholic Daughters of America, held a business session Monday evening.

Mrs. Francis A. Gately, junior past grand regent of the court, is chairman for the breakfast, assisted by Mmes. T. T. Babbitt, Frank H. Forester, William LeBlanc and J. J. MacDonald.

The affair, scheduled for Sunday, April 23, will observe the court's eleventh birthday. Members will attend 8 a.m. at Nativity Catholic Church, and receive communion in a body. The breakfast will be served at a restaurant on Pacific Coast Highway in Lomita.

The committee in charge of the breakfast were hostesses Monday evening, and served refreshments following the business session.

Pat Burke Is Honoree at Bridal Shower

Floral arrangements and wedding bells decorated the home of Mrs. Robert Carrow, 913 Madrid, when she served a lovely bridal shower for Miss Patricia Burke, who will be married to Wayne Alyn Scholl in June.

In the center of the table was a bride doll, which was made by Mrs. Roger Sichi and was presented to the honoree. Miniature umbrellas covered the beautifully decorated wedding cake.

After several games were played the hostess served refreshments and Miss Burke opened her shower gifts.

Attending the party were Mmes. Robert Burke, John Carroll, A. E. Egan, Kenneth Higgins, John Castello, Russell Swiger, Loreto Peronni, Floyd Sichi, Victor Carcell, Roger Sichi, Edward Rhone, Irene Moxley, Thurlow Whitcomb, David McLaughlin, William Scholl, Robert Carrow and Miss Julie Rhone.

Sending gifts, but unable to attend, were Mrs. H. R. Blanchard, Mrs. Gerald Mittan and Mrs. E. E. Schumert.

MRS. RICHARD BRUNDIN ... Mixes Spaghetti

Mrs. Brundin, Noted Musician, Shares Recipe With Readers

Probably one of Torrance's busiest housewives, Mrs. Richard T. Brundin, 805 Teri, is this week's Torrance HERALD Recipe contributor.

Mrs. Brundin, who has been prominently identified with music circles in the southland, has served as organist at the First Methodist Church here for some time. Many brides and bridegrooms will remember her as the organist at their weddings. She has 21 piano, and organ pupils and sings in the Methodist choir.

The local musician is a member of the Torrance Junior Woman's club, the newly formed Junior Pipers, and is a member of Mu Phi Epsilon National Music sorority. She has been active as division chairman in the concert series of the Torrance Youth Band.

Mr. Brundin is a design engineer at North American. He is also a member of the Methodist choir and the men's club.

The couple have two children, Kristin, 6, first grade student at Madrona and a budding pianist, and a son, Ricky, age 3.

Mrs. Brundin shares with readers today her recipe for: Italian Spaghetti

- 1 large chopped onion
- 2 cloves garlic, minced
- 1/4 chopped green pepper
- 1 lb. ground beef (browned)
- 2 cans tomato sauce
- 2 cans tomato paste
- 1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce
- 1/2 tsp. sugar
- Pinch of rosemary and oregano.
- Mushrooms may be added.

Simmer from 2 to 3 hours.

P T A ACTIVITIES

Halldale

Promenading through a flower-covered archway, members of Halldale Avenue PTA gave a glimpse into this year's fashions.

The fashion show was staged by the PTA under the direction of Mrs. William H. Dunston, general chairman.

Stealing the show, a tradition which this fashion parade has, was the line of children's models showing everything that is new for boys and girls ranging in ages 2 up.

However, much attention and applause centered on the adult fashions which constantly won the approval of the audience. Acting as narrator for the style parade of home-created fashions was Mrs. Dunston.

Mrs. Robert M. Sturges played mood music on the piano. Gloria Jean Sawyer danced the baller number.

The models stepped through an arch covered with flowers on the stage which had been converted into a garden scene by Mrs. Dunston, art and crafts chairman.

Those appearing in the show were four Girl Scouts from Troop 831 in their Easter finery, Janet Hubbard, Sheryl Stevens, Dicie Getner, and Charle McNeese. Others were Sheryl Nutman, Diane Nutman, Nancy Nutman and Mrs. Walter Nutman. Sue Harvey, Christine O'Bradovich, Kathleen O'Bradovich and Mrs. O'Bradovich, Sandy Anshutz, Marilyn Schilling, Carolyn Schilling, Barbara Dunston and Lynn Dunston.

Mrs. Irving Caultkins, Anna Cowdrey, Mrs. Douglas Cowdrey, Cathy Dreher, Tim Dreher, Claudia Bowers, Mrs. Judson Bowers, Barbara Ann Bruck, Laura Robertson, Mrs. Ralph Robertson, Sheryl Brock, Helen Condon, Roger Condon, Marilee Condon and Mrs. M. S. Condon.

Talmi Schimmel, Sherrel Moore, Genell Moore, Mrs. Fred Dowd, Dianna Brannon, Peggy Brannon, Beverly Brannon, Mrs. L. B. Brannon, Joyce Ringler, Judy Ringler, and Jerry Lynn Ringlerberg.

Completing the musical portion of the program Halldale mothersingers sang two selections, "Alice Blue Gown" and "Spenda," accompanied at the piano by Lee Warf. Ruth Adams, music teacher, made an appeal for more mothersingers. Interested mothers please contact Mrs. John H. Delsigne, music chairman.

Mrs. Thursday, April 19, once again polo shots will be administered to the students of Halldale.

Also on Thursday, April 19, from 5 to 8 p.m. a veterinarian will give shots to all dogs at Normandale for a fee of $1.00. The public is invited to have their dogs inoculated.

The annual May Dance Festival and bake sale at Halldale will be held on Friday, April 27, from 9:15 to 10:15 a.m. The public is invited.

The next executive board meeting is scheduled for Friday, May 4. The regular association meeting will be held on Thursday, May 17, at 1:30 p.m. instead of Thursday, May 10.

Torrance High

At a recent meeting of the Torrance High School PTA the following officers were elected for next year:

Mrs. Ross Dorsett, president; Mrs. D. Boone Kirks, first vice-president; Mr. John Shea, second vice-president; Mrs. O. O. Clayton, recording secretary; Mrs. E. M. Whitcomb, corresponding secretary; Mrs. K. R. Ruffel, treasurer; Mr. R. A. L. Traw, auditor; Mrs. J. J. Carter, historian.

The After-Graduation Party was discussed and it was announced that the party would be held at the Deauville Club in Santa Monica.

The Executive Board of the PTA met last week and voted to change the next Association meeting date to May 15. This will be the last meeting of the year and the new officers will be installed.

A Life membership nominating committee was elected including Mrs. Phil Humphreys, chairman; Mrs. Violet Benard and Mrs. Adam Krausger.

Mrs. J. L. Hinds, president, announced that the District convention would be held in the Municipal Auditorium in Long Beach on April 28.

Lomita

Mrs. Jane Rye, principal of Lomita Elementary School, announced that the annual spring dance festival, open house and carnival will be held on Friday, April 20, at 1:30 p.m.

Following the dances the PTA will sponsor a fun filled carnival with games, popcorn balls, hot dogs, movies, surprise laden country store and a spaghetti dinner to be served in the cafeteria.

Joe Zacher is chairman of the carnival this year and has the following women to work with her: Mrs. Frank Gorbet, chairman of the games booth assisted by Mmes. Miguel Martinez, Albin Hegge, Milton Anderson, Nicholas Betz, Richard Croverson, John Cummins, Henry Goethals and Donald Suttiff in the booths; Mrs. Leonard Loy is in charge of the country store; Mrs. Edward Pratt, popcorn balls, Mrs. Kenneth Bridges, snow cones; Mrs. Richard Metz, flower booth; Mmes. William Hansen and Robert Collins, balloons; Mmes. Jack Russell, G. Carson Shogren, and Joe Stahl, will supervise the dinner.

The April monthly board meeting of the 259th Place School PTA was held in the office of Miss Frances Dastarac Friday morning. The main business was the plans for the next luncheon to be held before the association meeting Thursday.

The motion was made and passed to send two students from the 259th Place School to a summer camp for five days. Open house will be held April 28 through April 26. There will be a tea served to the parents in the auditorium previous to the open house.

Monday will be open house for the kindergarten. Tuesday will be open house for the first and second grades. Wednesday will be open house for the third and fourth grades. Thursday will be open house for the fifth and sixth grades. All parents are asked to attend and see how the classes are progressing.

The May Dance Festival will be held on May 18. June 6 was announced as the date set for June breakfast to be held at the Homer Toberman Settlement house, San Pedro at 9 a.m. Lois Franin will be contacted for tickets.

The sight-saving class of Mrs. Hardesty will be described by one of the pupils. Fourth grade students will relate the use and the value of the PTA library.

There will be open house in all the rooms at 8:40 p.m. to celebrate Public School Week.
